ODUMUNC FACULTY FORUM

The Global Effects of the Ukraine War

Saturday 18 February, 9:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.

Riverwalk Room (enter through the City Dock Restaurant)

It is easy to say the war changes everything, but what does that mean in practical terms for other countries of the world and the United Nations? By invading a sovereign neighbor to take permanent control of its territory and people, Russian President Vladimir Putin directly challenged the assumptions that guided world politics since 1945, principles of international law, and the United Nations Charter.

GENERAL RULES AND PROCEDURES

CONDUCT

Delegate Conduct

Delegates are expected to remain courteous and professional at all times. Courteous and professional conduct can be best practiced by remaining in character during committee sessions, treating other delegates with respect and collaborating in a constructive manner, maintaining dignified behavior during all conference events and on hotel property, and by refraining from any consumption of alcohol and other illegal substances.

Any violation of these terms can lead to dismissal from conference activities. ODUMUNC has a zero tolerance policy for harassment or consumption of alcohol or illicit substances by delegates.

Delegate Dress

Delegate dress at ODUMUNC sessions must be professional, promoting a serious deliberative atmosphere, and never distracting. Standard delegate attire at conference sessions is Western business attire: jacket and tie for men and comparably formal for women; dress shoes for all delegates during sessions. Bring walking shoes for after.

Specifically:

- Delegates are required to wear conference badges at all ODUMUNC sessions and events.
Name badge mistakes will be corrected for free, but lost badges require a replacement fee.
- T-shirts, jeans, shorts, miniskirts or sandals are not allowed in conference sessions.
- National clothing matching your country assignment is permitted so long as it is formal and not mocking or distracting, as judged by ODUMUNC staff.
- Official conference T-shirts are permitted at non-deliberative events and at Sunday conference sessions only.
- Casual attire is fine outside formal meeting times, at non-deliberative events, karaoke and the delegate dance, so long as it is not distracting, as judged by ODUMUNC staff.
- ODUMUNC staff reserve the right to request that delegates violating these rules to leave or change into appropriate clothing immediately.

As a practical rule, if you are not sure about it, do not wear it.

Photo Release

By registering and submitting participants' names, sponsors grant Old Dominion University and the ODU Model United Nations Society permission to host photo releases.
